Healthy Workforce Institute to Exhibit at 2025 American Organization for Nursing Leadership Conference
Dr. Renee Thompson to promote resources to eradicate Bullying & Incivility in Healthcare

Oldsmar, FL. January 22, 2025— The Healthy Workforce Institute will exhibit at the 2025 American Organization for Nursing leadership (AONL) Conference in Boston Massachusetts on March 31 – April 1, 2025. CEO & Founder, Dr. Renee Thompson and members of her team will share their proven strategies to eradicate bullying, incivility and disruptive toxic behaviors in healthcare. In addition to exhibiting, Dr. Thompson will be a featured Keynote Speaker.

“Bullying and incivility are on the rise in healthcare, and strategies to reduce these disruptive behaviors have been very successful.” says Thompson. “The AONL Conference is an excellent forum to showcase our resources so that we can reach nurse leaders hungry to make their organization and healthcare a better place. If you’re there, come visit us at Booth 1237.”

AONL 2025 is the premier annual gathering of nursing leadership professionals. The Conference gathers thousands of professionals from a variety of healthcare organizations, offering a unique chance to collaborate with peers, share experiences and establish connections with leaders in the field and connects attendees with experts in the nursing and health care field and provides more than 50+ sessions of keynote, breakout and poster sessions.
